- c. If your transaction is not authorized by a PIN or a signature, the transaction might be processed via a PIN-debit network and not by Visa®.

3. Telephone Transfer Services

If you enroll in our TeleBanc telephone banking service, you will be assigned a Personal Identification Number (PIN) to gain access to the system. By using the TeleBanc system, you agree not to reveal your PIN to any person. The TeleBanc service along with your PIN will allow you to:

- b. Complete balance inquiries.

- d. Verify posted deposits.
- e. Transfer money between accounts (excluding passbook accounts) which have the same ownership.

4. Limitations on frequency and dollar amount of transaction

- a. Deposits. There are no limits on the dollar amount of deposits using the services described above. Because of the servicing schedule and processing time required in ATM operations, there is a delay between the time a deposit is made and when it becomes available for withdrawal. Not all ATMs may accept deposits. There may also be limits on the amount of funds you may deposit at certain ATMs.
- b. Withdrawal/POS. The amount of withdrawals from ATMs is limited to no more than $750.00 per day, excluding machine surcharges. The amount of Point of Sale transactions is limited to no more than $3,500.00 per day. The day for withdrawal/POS limits begins at 12:00 a.m. and ends at 11:59 p.m. the same day. There are also certain limitations on the frequency of use of The Card. These limitations are imposed and not revealed for security purposes. We have the ability to set special limits for some of our customers. If we set special limits for you, we will provide you with a written disclosure of your special limits when you receive your card. You will be denied the use of The Card if you (1) exceed the daily withdrawal or purchase limit, (2) do not have adequate funds available in your account, (3) do not enter the correct PIN, or (4) exceed the frequency of usage limitation. There is a limit on the number of denials permitted. Attempts to exceed the limit may result in machine retention of The Card at an ATM. The number of attempts that result in machine retention of your card is not revealed for security purposes.
- c. Lost/Stolen Cards. A new card may be issued to you at the time you report your card as lost or stolen and a "hold" placed on your old card. After such time, if you find your old card, you must notify us and return your old card to us. If you attempt to use your old card, it may be captured and retained by the ATM or Merchant.
- d. Dollar Amount of Transfers-The dollar amount of transfers is limited to the available memo balance, (See Funds Availability Statement) in the customer's account. The Funds Availability Statement was provided to you at the opening of the account. A copy is available upon request.

- d. If your statement shows transfers that you did not make, including those made by card, code, or other means, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any of the money you lose after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time.
- e. If a good reason, such as a long trip or hospital stay, kept you from calling us, we will extend the time periods.

The exchange rate between the transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing international transactions will be:

- b. the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date.

In each instance, plus or minus any adjustments determined by the issuer.

This revision supports implementation of the International Service Assessment fee for international transactions, and reflects elimination of the one percent currency conversion fee previously assessed to Members for cross-currency transactions.

12. Deposit and Payment Information

Deposits and payments made at ATM's are posted to your account according to the rules and regulations of those account(s) and our funds availability policies which are contained in our disclosure statement required under the Expedited Funds Availability Act, a copy of which has been provided to you or is available upon request. You may not deposit any foreign currency. Pennian Bank reserves the right to verify the items so deposited before such funds are made available to you; however, you may withdraw against the amount deposited two (2) business days after such deposit. Payments will only be accepted at ATM's which we operate.
